HB 3321 - SB 3357

February 27, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Provides that local governments may impose a penalty up to $500 for each false fire alarm when the number of such alarms exceeds three in one year. Current law allows a penalty of $25 for each false alarm, regardless of the number of such alarms.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant / Permissive

Assumes that, to the extent that local governments choose to impose such a penalty, the collection of such penalties will not generate a significant increase in revenue.
